In compliance with the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the University is generally prohibited from providing certain information from your student records to a third party, such as information on grades, invoices, financial aid (including scholarships, grants, work-study, or loan amounts) and other student record information. This restriction applies, but is not limited to, your parents (under certain circumstances), your spouse, or a sponsor. It may be important for these individuals to be able to access such information, especially if they play a key role in financing your education.

You may, at your discretion, grant the University permission to release information about your student records to a third party by submitting this completed Student Information Release Authorization to Student Administrative Services. The specified information will be made available only if requested by the authorized third party. The University does not automatically send this information to a third party. Authentication of the caller will be required before release of this information by telephone.

NOTE: For the third party designee you name on this form, this release overrides all FERPA directory suppression information that you have set up in your student record. This means that the University will release this information to the specified parties even if you have generally prohibited the disclosure of directory information in your student record.
