PERSONAL STATEMENT/ESSAY

Along with this application, please submit an essay of 150-300 words, in the form of a personal statement. The personal statement should provide the Admissions Committee with a sense of you as an individual so that we may have the opportunity to get to know you better through your writing. You may describe a special interest, experience or achievement that is important and meaningful to you.

INTERVIEW

An on-campus interview is encouraged as part of the admissions procedure. Prospective students are asked to meet with a staff member to discuss the School's programs and how they may be individualized to meet the student's needs. Please call The Clarkson School Office at 1-800-574-4425 to make arrangements for a campus visit. Telephone and off-campus interviews (in certain geographic areas) may also be arranged.
